As someone who is dedicated to ensuring children receive the best attention and assistance possible to enable them to fulfil their potential, you will know how important the role of a Teaching Assistant is. You will also understand, as we do, the importance of the working relationships you develop with teachers, your peers and colleagues. If you agree with the above statements, then you will be pleased to learn that we have a rare opportunity to become part of our wonderful team of Teaching Assistants.

We are a large 3 form entry, multi-cultural primary school in the heart of Colindale in north London with an additional resource base for pupils with physical disabilities, a 39-place nursery and a thriving 2-year-old nursery provision. Our inspired school building reflects our ambition to work creatively to build a better future for all our pupils, our parents and our staff.

Our children are well behaved, polite and respectful towards each other. They are motivated in their learning and have good relationships and high aspirations. Parents are supportive and keen to work with the school to enhance their children's learning and achievement.

Our strong emphasis on professional development, shared leadership and innovation are at the heart of what we do. We are committed to protecting and promoting children's rights and our commitment to this has been recognised by UNICEF in their Rights Respecting School Award. Our Rainbow values are at the heart of who we are and create a positive environment in which both children and staff strive to be the very best they can be.

Among the wide range of employee benefits available to staff at Colindale Primary School are the use of our own indoor swimming pool, enrolment in the Local Government Pension Scheme and a comprehensive Employee Assistance Programme.
