How we use parent/carer information – Colindale Primary School

The categories of parent/carer information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name and address)
- Personal information about a parent/carer's relatives (such as name, contact details, relationship to child)
- Safeguarding referrals and paperwork
- Contact details, contact preferences, date of birth, identification documents
- Results of internal assessments and externally set tests
- Pupil and curricular records
- Characteristics, such as ethnic background, eligibility for free school meals, or special educational needs
- Details of any medical conditions, including physical and mental health
- Attendance information
- Details of any support received, including care packages, plans and support providers
- Data about pupils that we have received from other organisations, including other schools, local authorities and the Department for Education.
- Disability and access requirement
- CCTV, access control video/systems and still photography, for safeguarding if installed on site

Why we collect and use this information

We use the parent/carer data:

- to provide appropriate medical care
- for communication
- to comply with safeguarding regulations
- support pupil learning
- report and monitor pupil progress
- to provide pastoral care
- to ensure and protect pupil welfare
- to assess our services and their quality
- to administer admissions
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We only collect and use pupils' personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we process it where:

- We need to comply with a legal obligation
- We need it to perform an official task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also process pupils' personal data in situations where:

- We have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect the individual's interests

Where we have obtained consent to use pupils' personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using pupils' personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which allow and justify our use of this data.

We collect and use parent/carer information under

- The Education Act (various years)
- The School Admissions Regulations 2012
- Children and Families Act 2014
- The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014
- Article 6, and Article 9 (UK GDPR) (includes special category data)
- Article 23 UK GDPR (Restrictions prevention, investigation and detection of crime)
- Data Protection Act 2018 Schedule 1 paragraph 18

The DfE process census data under the various Education Acts – further information can be found on their website: <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

Collecting parent/carer information

Whilst the majority of parent/carer information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain parent/carer information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing parent/carer data

We keep personal information about parents and carers of pupils while they are attending our school. We may also keep it beyond their attendance at our school if this is necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations. We keep information about parents and carers of pupils in accordance with the Information and Records Management Society's retention periods.
